TORCHLIGHT PARADE AND HEX BONFIRE

Immediately following a short photo session of the Court, the Scandia Dancers and a parade of musicians will lead the Court in a torchlight procession to the parking lot south of the auditorium for the traditional hex burning ceremony and community sing-along.

According to Scandinavian folklore, tossing straw hexes into the flames of the bonfire brings good luck and freedom from evil spirits to those who pitch a straw doll into the fire.

During preparation for the 1980 Festival, the hexes were no where to be found and none were tossed into the bonfire. This maybe the reason why Miss Scandinavia 1980 had a terrible time keeping her crown on. The straw hexes are made each year by the Scandinavian Festival Court and volunteers.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's
early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare; the bombs
bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star Spangled Banner
yet wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

Entertainment

STAN BORESON “KING OF SCANDINAVIAN HUMOR”

Stan Boreson, “King of Scandinavian Humor” and veteran Northwest entertainer is celebrating his 57th year in show business. A successful entertainer from the offset, Stan appeared for 18 years on several Seattle television shows including his longest running and most successful “King Klub House.”

Stan’s a native of Everett, Washington and a University of Washington graduate. While attending the University of Washington, he was invited to participate in his first local television show called Campus Capers, featuring University students. His success on Capers led him to his second show “Two B’s on the Keys”. Recognizing his talents as well as his humor, the stations program director created a daily afternoon children’s program for him called “King Klub House.” The success of this show won him many awards including the National “Children Entertainer Award” awarded by the Dell Publishing Company.

Along with his accordion and “songs his Uncle Torvald taught him,” Stan has tickled the funny bone of audiences of all ages where ever he appears. On a dare, he began transforming popular American songs into humorist Norwegian and Swedish dialect. Over the years, his songs proved so successful that he has made numerous recordings and currently has fifteen cassettes on the market. His latest album released early this year is entitled “Yust Tinkin’ of Yogi” which features songs written by Yogi Yorgesson. Audiences remember him the most for his Christmas songs which are featured on two albums, “Yust Go Nuts at Christmas” and “Stan Boreson Fractures Christmas.” These albums feature such favorites as, “Christmas Goose”, “Walking in my Winter Underwear” and “Yingle Bells, Yingle Bells.”

Although Stan like being at home with his family, he still enjoys travelling and performing at festivals and celebrations throughout the United States and Canada. Some of his more memorable appearances have been the Norsk Hostfest in Minot, North Dakota; Scandinavian/American night in East Meadow, New York; Little Norway Festival in Petersburg, Alaska and for the King Olav V of Norway.

When he is not performing, Stan and his wife, Barbara, are conducting tours throughout the United States and Canada. Their tours take them to such destinations as the Grand Canyon, Canadian Rockies and Branson, Missouri. Of course he brings his accordion along for good old fashion sing-alongs.

“SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRY” COREEN BERGHOLM, LEADER

An exciting new group of talented musicians will be performing at The Queen’s Ball, Friday evening from 9:00 p.m. to Midnight and throughout the festival weekend. As group leader and accordionist, Coreen Bergholm is joined with Dorothy Mason - Accordion, Daniel Kennel - Keyboard, Van Kennell - Drummer and Russ Lewis - guitar. Dinah Urell joins in as vocalist. They play Scandinavian dance music and a little mix of country.

A highlight at the Astoria Scandinavian Midsummer Festival is the recognition of an immigrant from each of the five Scandinavian countries. They will be introduced Saturday, June 19, 7:00 p.m. during the Special Program. It has become an annual tradition for the local Scandinavian lodges to honor those that have brought their heritage to our community. It's interesting to hear what prompted them to leave "the old country" and how they have lived their lives here in the United States.

1999 HONORED SCANDINAVIAN IMMIGRANT

Sven A. Sundstrom SWEDISH IMMIGRANT

Sven was born on August 19, 1932, in Hertson, a tiny farm village located three miles outside of the city of Lulea in the county of Norrbotten and close to the Arctic Circle in northern Sweden. He grew up on a farm together with 6 brothers and 5 sisters. Sven was the sixth child. He worked on the family farm and has happy memories of growing up. After his 7 years of compulsory schooling, Sven attended Merchant Marine School in Goteborg for one year; then served in the Swedish Merchant Marine visiting many foreign ports, and spent one year in the Swedish Navy. Other jobs in Sweden included working as a coupling man for the railroad and working in the steel industry.

In 1957 Sven's uncle who lived in Port Angeles, Washington, came with his wife and their big Chrysler auto to Sweden for a visit. That car made a big impression on him since it was not very common to observe such a big, fancy car on Swedish roads at that time. Sven wanted to come to America after his uncle's visit and in December 1959, his dream came true. Sven, not speaking English, came to America and settled in Port Angeles where his uncle and several cousins lived. He worked at a plywood mill. Sven met his wife-to-be, Maureen, in January 1963 and they were wed on December 7, 1963.

Sven worked at Astoria Plywood Mill from 1969 to 1989 as a tugboat helper and skipper on the mill-owned tug. In 1989 he worked for Knappton at the Lewis & Clark log dump building log rafts and in 1994 Sven worked for Campbell Tug and Barge as a mate until his retirement in 1996.

Sven and Maureen have two daughters, Lisa and Yvonne. They have been involved in the Scandinavian Festival for many years as a family. The entire family has travelled to Sweden three times since 1959 to visit relatives. Sven has made four trips alone to Sweden.

Sven's hobbies include accordion playing, hunting, fishing, and woodworking. Since his "retirement", he became a licensed contractor and has turned his woodworking interests into a small handyman business.

1999 HONORED SCANDINAVIAN IMMIGRANT

Clemet B. Paulsen NORWEGIAN IMMIGRANTS

Clemet was born on February 17, 1924 at Haslum (approx. eight miles west of Oslo, Norway). Clemet received all his education in Norway and is a graduated Forester. During the five years of German occupation of Norway in World War II, Clemet spent most of his time in the forest and in schools. In 1947 he married Liv Thorsrud from Porsgrunn, Telemark.

Since their teen years were ruined by the war, Clemet and Liv were hungry for adventure and decided to go to America for their honeymoon, sailing on the "Queen Mary". They travelled to many states and spent time with Clemet's Uncle Peter Paulsen, who owned The Owl Drug Store, in Astoria, Oregon. With such fond memories of America, Clemet and Liv came back to Astoria in 1949. He worked for City of Astoria, Weyerhauser and Weedman Lumber in Longview, Washington.

In 1954 they went back to Norway to work in the lumber business with Clement's brother. In 1956 they came back to United States where Clemet was a forester for Crown Zellerbach and worked there for 26 1/2 years becoming Forest Manager. Clemet and Liv have one daughter, Julie Hitchman, and one son, Harold C. Paulsen. They also had twin boys, one died at birth and the other at age 26.

Clemet and Liv visit their many relatives in Norway about every three years since 1956.

Liisa Penner FINNISH IMMIGRANT

Liisa's father, Charles Mellin, an American of mainly Swedish and German ancestry, had in February 1940 joined the Finnish army purely out of a sense of adventure to help defend Finland against bombing attacks from her Russian neighbor. At the same time Liisa's mother, Helmi Huttunen, who was born in Finland but had lived in the United States for several years returned to her native land to help with the Finnish war effort. Liisa's father and mother were married and Liisa Penner was born in Iisalmi, Finland. Liisa and her mother left for the United States in 1941 to join her father. The Mellin's settled in Chicago where Liisa's sister, Karen, was born and later moved to Southern California.

In 1951, Helmi moved the girls to Astoria, Oregon where they had distant relatives. Helmi operated a restaurant for 27 years. Liisa and Karen worked at the restaurant in the afternoons and in the summer months. Liisa graduated from Astoria High School in 1958, then attended the University of Oregon to get her B.A. and M.A. in Anthropology.

Henry Penner and Liisa have been married nearly forty years and have three children, Bill, Laura and Dea. They have two grandchildren. In 1970, they made a trip to Finland to visit her family and the country that they came from. Liisa has worked many years for the Clatsop County Historical Society as a volunteer. She is now a member of the staff and has been the editor of "Cumtux" the historical society's magazine for six years.

Flags of Scandinavia

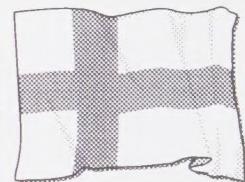

DENMARK, EUROPE'S OLDEST MONARCHY

Denmark, the oldest monarchy in Europe, also has the oldest flag. It is called "Dannebrog". It is thought that this flag, showing a white cross on a red field, was a gift from the Pope for the 13th century crusade against eastern pagans. The earliest account of the use of Dannebrog dates back to the 1500's, with the flag established as a naval ensign. It became the standard of the Danish Army in 1842. The name, Dannebrog, probably derives from the Frisian words "dan" meaning red, and "brog" which originally meant a colored cloth. Although the Faroe Islands belong to Denmark, they fly their own flag. It has a small red cross within a larger blue cross over a white field.

FINLAND, INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC IN 1917

The Finnish flag features a blue cross on a white field. According to tradition, the design was proposed by poet, Sakari Topelius, in the 1860's. He said that the colors symbolized "the blue of our lakes and the white snow of our winters." It was made official about six months after Finland achieved its independence after World War I. The Aland Islands are between Finland and Sweden. They are mostly populated by people of Swedish descent but administered by Finland. The flag of the Aland Islands shows this blend with a small red cross within a larger yellow cross over a blue field.

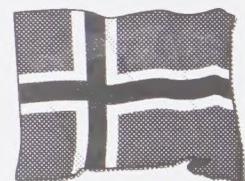

ICELAND, INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC IN 1944

Iceland was a Danish possession during the 1800's, became a state of Denmark and finally was made independent in 1944. Its national flag consists of a small red cross within a larger white cross over a blue field. The blue represents the sky, the white is the prominent snow, and the red symbolizes the fiery volcanoes. This flag was used when Iceland gained its independence.

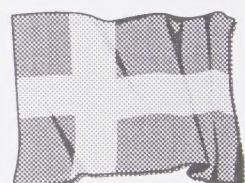

NORWAY, A CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY

After being ruled by Denmark from the 14th century until 1814 and then united with Sweden for nearly a century, Norway became an independent country in 1905. The present design of a small blue cross within a larger white cross over a field of red appeared as the merchant ensign in the 1820's. It was not used nationally until the late 1890's and became the official national flag in 1905.

SWEDEN, CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY

Sweden's flag with the yellow cross and the light blue field is probably derived from an ancient state coat-of-arms. In 1569, Johan III wished that the gilded (yellow) cross of the traditional coat-of-arms should appear on all Swedish banners, standards and flags. During the reign of King Gustav Adolphus, this design became the Swedish naval ensign. The current design was made official in 1906.
